

Community Remembrance

Exhibiting Painful Histories in the Library

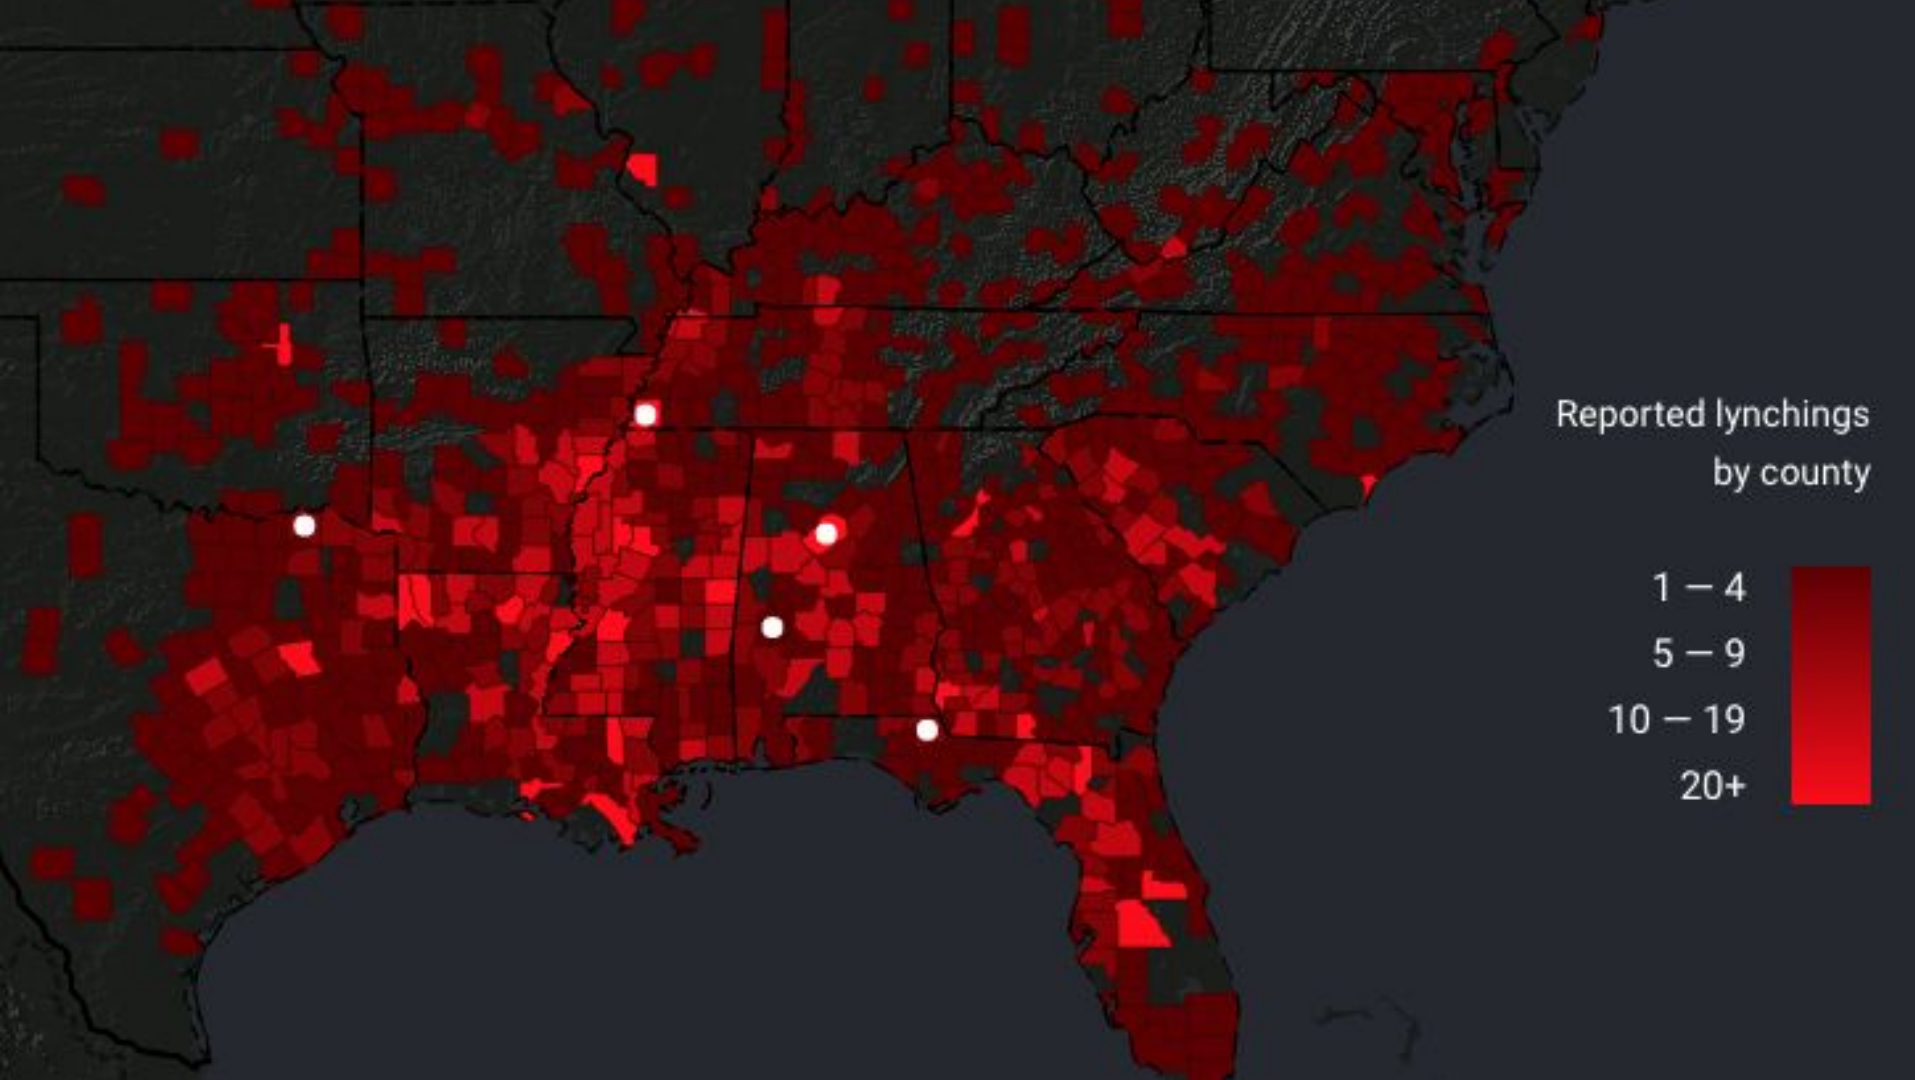

EJI Community Remembrance Project

4400+

Documented racial terror lynchings

1877-1950

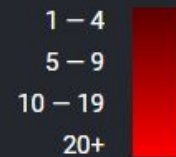

Virginia

84

reported lynchings

Reported lynchings
by county

John Henry James

Earlier Work

CHARLOTTESVILLE BLUE RIBBON COMMISSION

The Charlottesville Community Civil Rights Pilgrimage

Pilgrimage

Pilgrimage

- Charlottesville, VA
- Appomattox, VA
- Danville, VA
- Greensboro, NC
- Charlotte, NC
- Atlanta, GA
- Birmingham, AL
- Selma, AL
- Montgomery, AL

Pilgrimage

Pilgrimage

After the Pilgrimage

After the Pilgrimage

AUG
5

Charlottesville Civil Rights Pilgrimage Report Back

Public · Hosted by CvillePilgrimage

IN-SERVICE

- 9:00 Registration
Breakfast provided
- 9:30 State of the Library & Intro
David Plunkett, Library Director
- 10:00 Benefits Info
City of Charlottesville staff
- 11:00 Break
- 11:15 1st Breakout Session
Storytime Guidelines with Angela
Required for children's staff
- Circulation Roundtable with B...
- Health Literacy & Reference U...
- Civil Rights Pilgrimage with Abby Cox & Tasha Birkhead

Etched in Memory: Civil Rights Pilgrimage and Exhibit

Wednesday, June 5
at 3:00-4:30pm

Hear from participants of the Charlottesville Community Civil Rights Pilgrimage from Charlottesville to Montgomery and their journey to commemorate the life and lynching of John Henry James. Learn more information about the soil exhibit and participation in the Equal Justice Initiative's Community Remembrance Project.

Exhibit on display at Northside from June 3rd-29th

JEFFERSON-MADISON
REGIONAL LIBRARY

Northside Library
www.jmrl.org/northside

After the Pilgrimage

After the Pilgrimage

The Exhibit

Historical photograph of the street scene.

Historical photograph of the building.

The Daily Progress

Historical text describing the newspaper's early years and its role in the community.

Historical text describing the newspaper's early years and its role in the community.

Historical text describing the newspaper's early years and its role in the community.

Historical text describing the newspaper's early years and its role in the community.

Historical text describing the newspaper's early years and its role in the community.

Historical text describing the newspaper's early years and its role in the community.

Historical text describing the newspaper's early years and its role in the community.

Historical text describing the newspaper's early years and its role in the community.

Historical text describing the newspaper's early years and its role in the community.

Historical document or manuscript, possibly a letter or a report, with a signature at the bottom.

Historical document or manuscript.

Historical newspaper clipping from 'The Daily Progress'.

Historical newspaper clipping from 'The Daily Progress'.

Community Remembrance Project

Community Remembrance Project

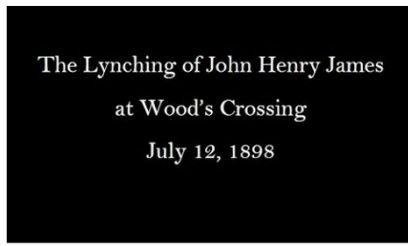

Albemarle County
Resolution of Support

Albemarle County
Declaration of John Henry
James Day

Transcript: Race, Time &
America: A Meditation in Three
Part Disharmony
Spoken by Supervisor
Randolph on 7/7/18

Presentation: The Lynching of John Henry James at Wood's Crossing

The Exhibit

The Exhibit - Travel

Jan	Feb	March	April	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
	CR	MN	AG	SC	RI

Resources

- Digital Exhibit
- Pilgrims Podcast Episode
- Pilgrimage Facebook Page
- Virginia Humanities' Pilgrimage 360 Tour
- Cville Weekly article
- Pilgrimage Community Report Back Video
- Albemarle County | EJI Community Remembrance Site
- EJI Community Remembrance Project
- EJI Lynching in America Report

Questions?

Tasha Birckhead tbirckhead@jmrl.org

Abby Cox acox@jmrl.org

Josh Howard jhoward@jmrl.org

Siri Russell srussell@albemarle.org

Charlottesville

Appomattox

Danville

Greensboro

Welcome to the Beloved Community Center
...striving toward social, and economic equity and dignity for all www.belovedcommunitycenter.org located at: 417 Arlington St.

Greensboro, NC 27406

info@belovedcommunitycenter.org
Mailing address: P.O. Box 875
Greensboro, NC 27402

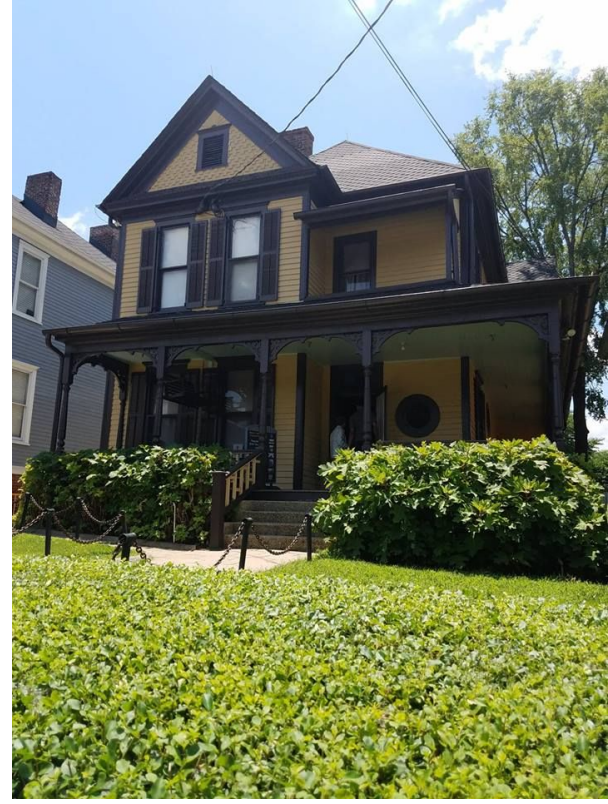

Beloved Community Center

Phone: (336) 230-0001

Beloved Community Center

Atlanta

Atlanta

Atlanta

Birmingham

Selma

Montgomery

Montgomery

