Film Screening - Legend Lake: A Talking Circle

Legend Lake: a Talking Circle is a 34 minute documentary film that recounts the saga of Legend Lake, a beautiful 5,160 acre lake development, formed by joining nine smaller lakes in the Menominee Indian Reservation in Northern Wisconsin. Shore-land was subdivided and sold mostly to non-Menominee people. Legend Lake represents another chapter in the long and frequently contentious relationship between Native Americans and non-Native Americans in Wisconsin. At each film screening there will be a speaker facilitating a discussion about the documentary.

Seed Saving Class

Join gardening expert Cheryl Moore-Gough on Wednesday, September 6 at 6:30pm for a demonstration on best practices for saving your seeds from your garden. Seed saving methods differ depending on the type of fruit your plant produces. Cheryl will demonstrate extraction methods from dry fruits and flower heads, as well as fleshy and pulpy fruit. We'll also discuss last ditch efforts to ripen tomatoes (if no hard frost has hit yet) and saving and planting garlic cloves. Cheryl Moore-Gough, M.S. Plant Sciences, is an accomplished author of several books including The Complete Guide to Saving Seeds, Montana Gardeners Companion and Rocky Mountain Vegetable Gardening Guide. Her articles have been published in many horticultural magazines. She is now an Adjunct Assistant Professor in the Department of Plant Sciences and Plant Pathology at MSU. Cheryl speaks throughout the west on a wide variety of yard and garden topics, including seed saving, vegetable production, and many more seasonally appropriate subjects. Her books will be available for sale after the demonstration.

Tablets and Smartphones: Library eBooks, audiobooks, movies and more!

In this class we will go over the basics of downloading free apps from Overdrive, hoopla, and RB Digital so you can read, listen to and watch library materials anytime, anywhere. You need to have a smartphone or tablet such as an iPhone/iPad, Android tablet/phone, Samsung Nook or Kindle Fire and your library card number. iPhone and iPad users will need to know their Apple ID to download the apps.

If you have a Kindle Voyage or similar, or a Nook Simple Touch or similar, please plan to attend the BYOD Series: Smartphones, tablets and library downloadables Q&A session to learn how to transfer library eBooks to the eReaders.

The Writings of Bob Dylan: Seeing From a Different Point of View

Let's get together and talk about Bob Dylan! He has not only been performing and writing for over 50 years, but is now a Nobel Prize winner. He was the Voice of a Generation - but he, and we, keep changing as the decades roll by. Let's get to the heart of his writing - his nuanced use of poetic and literary devices, the references to literature and the Bible which are sprinkled throughout his work, his themes and genres and points of view. Bob Dylan has been telling stories of America, and Americans, for so long now, and we are lucky to have him in our midst.

This is a two-part course with Lisa Kleman, taking place on Mondays, September 18 & 25. Space is limited and registration is required. Please register here or contact Carol Moldt at 428-8375 for more information or to register. Sponsored by the Arts & Literature Division. Free and open to the public.

Lisa Kleman, a former English Adjunct Professor, is now enjoying teaching Creative Writing while she researches, writes, and gives public talks about her relatives - the musical Dossenbachs - who lived in Rochester in the decades just before and after the turn of the 20th century.
