What is creativity?

The background is a light green color with several thin, curved lines in a slightly darker shade of green. A single vertical line is positioned to the right of the text.

A novel product, idea, or problem solution that is of value to the individual and/or the larger social group.

The musical score is arranged in a standard orchestral format. The Flute, Oboe, Clarinet in A, and Bassoon parts feature melodic lines with dynamics such as dol. and pp. The Horns in D play sustained chords. The Violin and Viola parts are marked pizz. (pizzicato) and p (piano). The woodwinds and strings play in a 3/4 time signature with a key signature of one sharp (F#).

I am a creative person

What do you feel supports, enhances, or encourages your creativity?

- "Having the freedom to use my creativity in different ways for my work."
- "Time to think. A quiet place to ponder. Reading and browsing what others have done to adapt their ideas."
- "Being open to change"
- "Participating in a range of activities; interacting with different kinds of people, doodling"
- "Not being afraid to fail and being willing to try different things..."
- "wine, good leadership. also wine"

What barriers do you encounter to creative work?

- “Funding, lack of coworker and manager support, lack of time”
- “Budget, Administrative indifference, entrenched and even regressive library staff, faculty turnover, curriculum design”
- “Essentially, that it is often viewed as frivolity.”
- “insufficient sleep, poor leadership, improper funding, and societal disrespect for education, knowledge, and learning”
- “Getting lost in the details; my own lack of seeing myself as creative.”

Enhancing Personal Creativity

Cultivate self-awareness

- ▶ Find out what you like and what you hate about life
 - ▶ Do more of what you love, and less of what you hate
 - ▶ Know what you're good at, and what you could develop
 - ▶ Recognize when you're stuck in a rut
 - ▶ Journal, blog, or otherwise reflect

Expand your horizons

- ▶ Vary your routine
 - ▶ Take a class
 - ▶ Try something that pushes your boundaries
 - ▶ Explore within your domain, and outside of it
 - ▶ When something interests you, pursue it
 - ▶ Play

Establish good habits

- ▶ Take charge of your schedule
 - ▶ Wake up each day with a specific goal
 - ▶ Make time for reflection and relaxation
 - ▶ Get enough sleep

Grow

- Develop what you lack
- If you do anything well, it becomes enjoyable
- To keep enjoying something, increase its complexity
- Shift frequently from “openness” to “closure”

Thought Exercises

- ▶ Look for problems
 - ▶ Try to intentionally increase complexity
 - ▶ Question your assumptions, and avoid premature conclusions

Design a new library chair

Thought Exercises

- ▶ Look for problems
- ▶ Try to intentionally increase complexity
- ▶ Question your assumptions, and avoid premature conclusion
- ▶ Collaborate with others
- ▶ Practice divergent thinking: Producing
 - ▶ As many ideas as possible
 - ▶ As many different ideas as possible
 - ▶ Unlikely ideas

Exercise 3

Exercise 4

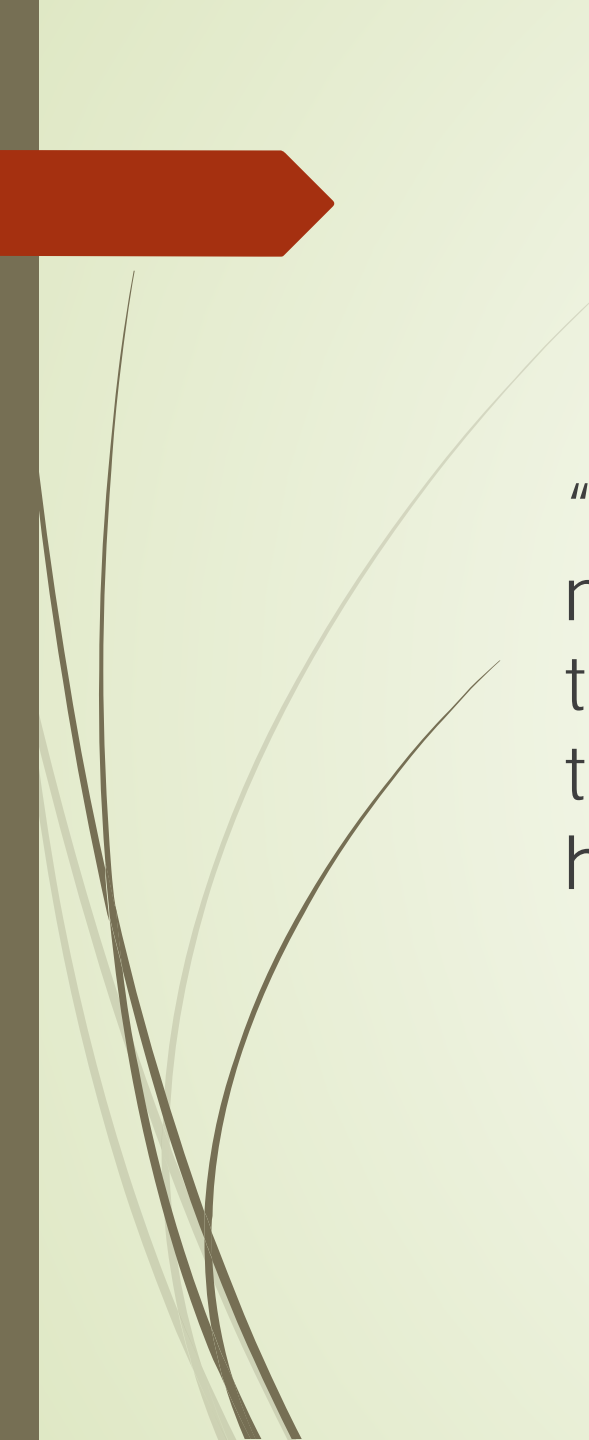

The Creativity of Others

- ▶ Time
 - ▶ Freedom to fail
 - ▶ What if...?
 - ▶ Model comfort with change
 - ▶ Encourage work/life balance
 - ▶ Resource creativity as much as possible

Conclusion

" ...No matter how gifted a person is, he or she has no chance to achieve anything creative unless the right conditions are provided by the field...: training, expectations, resources, recognition, hope, opportunity, and reward."
