WELCOME

Welcome to the 2014 Virginia Library Association Conference Program. We are pleased to be back in the Colonial Capital. The Historic Triangle is a tourist destination so there is plenty to do and many shopping and dining options. We hope this conference will provide you with great professional development opportunities and a chance to network with colleagues.

This year's "spy" theme, Agents of Change, denotes that libraries and information professionals are in the intelligence business. As agents of change, the intelligence we gather and disseminate changes the lives of our individual patrons and students and ultimately the community, the state, and country in which we live. Much like James Bond and Maxwell Smart, we all know that the work we do will save civilization from diabolical masterminds and the chaos of ignorance. (By the way, my favorite spy is Roger Moore playing James Bond.)

This year we have two very engaging keynote speakers. Dr. Michael Stephens, writer of the monthly Library Journal column "Office Hours" and assistant professor at San Jose State University's School of Information, will speak to us at the opening session on Thursday. Our keynote speaker for Friday is Gene Ambaum, a co-creator of the "Unshelved" comic.

Under the leadership of Mark Lenker, the Conference Committee has worked hard to ensure that you have a diverse slate of sessions to choose from and a track for nearly every interest.

This year we will continue the new tradition of the UnConference where you have the opportunity to discuss the topic of your choosing in an informal setting. Any library topic is appropriate, so keep an eye out for details about how to join or lead a discussion.

We will also host the TWO winners of this year's Jefferson Cups with author talk sessions.

In addition to multiple educational opportunities, there are several networking events too. On Wednesday afternoon there are tours of William & Mary's Swem Library and that evening the New Members Round Table Forum is sponsoring a Deli Crawl. Bus transportation to and from the hotel will be provided for both events.

On Thursday there will be a Dine-Around of local restaurants hosted by the Conference Committee's Local Arrangements Team. VIVA will also host a reception on

Kevin Smith

Thursday to celebrate its 20th anniversary.

The highlight of this year's social will be casino games reminiscent of Casino Royale. Come prepared to play craps, roulette, and black jack. Your mission for this evening, should you choose to accept it, is to beat the dealer and be a high roller. (Tuxedos are optional.)

While you are at the conference, please spend some time visiting with the vendors in the Exhibit Hall. In addition to you, vendors are essential to the success of the conference. They can provide you with information about their products and services and many of them sponsor conference events and contribute to our scholarships.

If you have additional questions, look for Conference Committee members, or visit the Registration Booth in the Exhibit Hall. VLA members plan this conference for you and we hope you have a great time in Williamsburg.

Sincerely,

Kevin W. Smith, President
Virginia Library Association

Onsite Registration Hours

- Thursday, October 23: 9:30 am-4:30 pm
- Friday, October 24: 8:30 am-1:00 pm

Cancellation and Refunds

Written requests for conference registration refunds must be sent to VLA and must arrive by mail, fax or email no later than the advance registration deadline (October 8). A $25 processing fee will be deducted from each refund payment.

Refunds are not typically issued after the deadline. Appeals may be made to the Executive Director for exceptional circumstances. Refund checks will be processed after the conference. There are no refunds for “no-shows.”

Substitutions are permitted. Registrations can be transferred to another person if VLA is notified in writing by the original registrant by the Advance Registration deadline (October 8).

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

Packets

Registration packets can be picked up outside the Presidents Ballroom (first floor of the Conference Center) on Wednesday, October 23, from 3:00 pm-4:00 pm or at the back of the Presidents Ballroom Thursday morning immediately after the 9:00 am Grand Opening, until 5:00 pm that day. The registration desk will be open at the back of the Presidents Ballroom at 8:00 am on Friday and will close at 2:00 pm. (Helpful tip from an experienced conference attendee, posted to VLA's Facebook page: "Don't get in the registration line right away. Take a few minutes to browse the exhibits. The line will be shorter when you get there, and you'll have a chance to network.")

Exhibits

Exhibits will be open on Thursday from 9:00 am-5:00 pm and on Friday from 8:00 am-2:00 pm.

Box Lunch

On Thursday a $7.00 turkey box lunch will be provided for those who request it and pay in advance. In order to receive the box lunch you must request it on your registration form. A ticket to pick up your lunch will be in your registration packet. Tickets can not be sold onsite. Vegetarian option available upon request.

Social Media: #2014VLA

UNCONFERENCE

The UnConference will be a participant driven way to exchange ideas and learn from each other in smaller, more intimate groups than ever before. This peer-to-peer sharing opportunity will only be effective if participants are active. Some topics will be solicited a couple of weeks prior to the VLA Conference, and other topics will be selected by attendees on the fly. In the end, the UC can be an excellent source of information and a chance to discuss issues affecting your library now. Do the UC! The UnConference will run all day Thursday and Friday outside the Exhibit Hall.

VLA Conference Attendee tip (submitted via Facebook):

Wear comfortable shoes! Scope out the location of the restrooms. Empty your tote bag in your room after visiting the exhibits so you don't have to carry around all that loot. Introduce yourself to someone you don't know at each session you attend.

VLA NMRT Deli Crawl

Jump start your conference networking and social calendar with VLA's New Members Round Table on Wednesday, October 22nd. Back by popular demand, the deli crawl will explore the stomping grounds of Williamsburg's finest: Green Leafe, Paul's Deli, Brickhouse Tavern, and the College Delly.

VLA NMRT Forum will coordinate safe transportation from the hotel to the delis and participants will be responsible for purchasing their own beverages and food.

Everyone is welcome! We will meet at 6:45 pm in the lobby of the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel, Williamsburg, in order to begin our evening of networking.

PRECONFERENCE

Behind the Lines of the Political Battle for Libraries

Wednesday, October 22, 2:00–4:00 pm

Center Lounge, 1st Floor

($25 for members, $30 for non-members). At this session, John Chrastka and PC Sweeney want to share what they learned while working on the battleground of library ballot campaigns. They want to encourage a public dialog among librarians about the importance of politics in our daily routine and to encourage each other to get involved in the fight for library funding at the ballot box. They will also be sharing many of the tips and tricks that national SuperPACs use to build advocacy and coalitions and communities of supporters.

John Chrastka

PC Sweeney

Mr. Chrastka is a former partner in AssociaDirect, a Chicago-based consultancy focused on supporting associations in membership recruitment, conference, and governance activities. He is president of the Board of Trustees for the Berwyn (IL) Public Library (2006 – present) and is a former president of the Reaching Across Illinois Libraries System (RAILS) multi-type library system. Prior to his work at AssociaDirect, he was Director for Membership Development at the American Library Association (ALA). He is a member of ALA as well as the Illinois Library Association (ILA), and is a member of the American Political Science Association (APSA). He tweets at @mrchrastka and was named a 2014 Library Journal Mover & Shaker.

Patrick “PC” Sweeney is a founding Board Member of EveryLibrary (national), Chair of the EveryLibrary California Ballot Committee, and a tireless and innovative advocate for libraries. A 2007 graduate of the San Jose School of Information, Patrick works in California for Sunnyvale Public Library as an administrative librarian. He is active in the American Library Association where he is an at-large member of their governing Council. He is an ALA Emerging Leader and Eureka Leadership Fellow. His most recent project, the Story Sailboat, works to provide library services and materials, by boat, to advocate for libraries and literacy in the San Francisco Bay area. You can find him online through his blog at www.pcsweeney.com.

Swem Library Tour, Wednesday, 4:30 pm-6:30 pm

The Earl Gregg Swem Library at the College of William & Mary invites you to a reception on Wednesday, 10/22. Join us for refreshments and conversation, followed by a VIP behind-the-scenes view of our treasures in Special Collections. Don't miss out on this great opportunity! Transportation provided by VLA. Shuttle will begin running from the DoubleTree by Hilton Williamsburg at 4:30 pm and will run constantly until 6:30 pm.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Thursday, October 23, 10:00-11:30 am
Auditorium, 1st Floor

Dr. Michael Stephens is Assistant Professor in the School of Information at San Jose State University. He was the 2009 CAVAL Visiting Scholar in Australia, consulted and presented for US Embassies in Germany, Switzerland, and Turkey, and presents to both national and international audiences about emerging technologies, learning, innovation, and libraries. Since 2010, Dr. Stephens has written the monthly column "Office Hours" for Library Journal exploring the issues, ideas, and emerging trends in library and information science education. To review Dr. Stephen's archive of work, visit his Tame the Web website and blog tametheweb.com.

Dr. Michael Stephens

Gene Ambaum

Friday, October 24, 9:00-10:00 am
Auditorium, 1st floor

Gene Ambaum is a librarian, though now he lurks in libraries more than he works in them. He uses a pen name because he's scared of his own shadow (or so Bill, Unshelved's co-creator, claims). He is good at making fun of strange, difficult customers because he is the strangest, most difficult customer of all. He once taught English overseas because no one there was in a position to criticize his spelling. See pictures of his cats on Twitter @ambaum.

VLA Conference Attendee tip (submitted via Facebook):

Dress in layers. Some presentations rooms are chillier than others. Talk to everyone you sit next to, or queue up with. Exchange business cards with folks who do your job in other libraries.

JEFFERSON CUP EVENTS

VLA will offer ticketed events on Thursday, October 23 and Friday, October 24. Attendees at the sessions will be entered into a raffle to win a complimentary, autographed copy of the author's winning title. Both events are sponsored by Friends of Williamsburg Regional Library.

Thursday, October 23, 1:00-1:45 pm, $15

A. B. Westrick is the winner of the Jefferson Cup for older readers for Brotherhood. Richmond, Virginia lies in ruins in 1867. Fourteen year-old Shadrach is left with no father, a shattered mother and an older brother anxious to take on the role of head of the house.

A. B. Westrick grew up in Pennsylvania and spent most of her summers driving south to visit relatives and camp in state parks. She was an avid reader and liked to write stories but math seemed easier. So off to college she went to become a math major, then a psychology major, and then theology. While encouraging her four children to pursue what they loved she decided to take her own advice and signed up for a creative writing class. In 2006 Ms. Westrick became the Administrative Director of James River Writers. Brotherhood, Ms. Westrick's debut novel, has also won the National Council for the Social Studies 2014 Notable Trade Book Award, was an American Library Association 2014 Best Book for Young Adults, a Jane Addams Children's Book Award, and a Junior Library Guild Selection.

Book sales and signing immediately following in booth 406 (O'Brien Associates).

Friday, October 24, 2:00-2:45pm, $15

The Jefferson Cup award for young readers goes to Matt Phelan for Bluffton: My Summer With Buster Keaton. It's 1908 and Henry can't get enough of the star of the troupe of vaudeville performers visiting sleepy Muskegon, Michigan. All Buster Keaton wants to do is play baseball with the boys.

Matt Phelan is an award winning author as well as an illustrator of many books for young readers, including The Higher Power of Lucky by Susan Patron. He lives in Ardmore, Pennsylvania with his family. Bluffton is his third graphic novel. Phelan won the 2010 Scott O'Dell Award for Historical Fiction for his first graphic novel, The Storm in the Barn. Xander's Panda Party by Linda Sue Park is the latest picture book he has illustrated. With a goal of one day writing and directing movies, he studied film and theater in college. However, Matt's first love has always been drawing. In many ways being an illustrator is fulfilling that goal. He is the actor, director, cinematographer and more when he creates a children's book.

Book sales and signing immediately following outside the Exhibit Hall.

AWARDS & SCHOLARSHIPS

VLA Friends of the Library Award

The Friends of the Village Library branch of the Massanutten Regional Library is a nonprofit, volunteer organization with approximately 30 members. The organization began in 1974 when a group of interested citizens began the work of creating a branch library to serve Northern Rockingham County. This group later became the Friends group. While the group's makeup has changed over the years, the one constant has been the dedication of its members. The original branch was located in the Broadway Municipal Building and was staffed entirely by volunteers. In 1991, the Village Library moved to its own building thanks primarily to the work of the Friends group. In February 2013, the newest Village Library opened on Central Street becoming more than twice the size of the last building. The Friends group kicked off the fund-raising campaign for the expansion and move with a $50,000 donation. In addition the group helped purchase furnishings and other extras for the building. The group had been working towards this goal for years. They pooled donations, bequests, book sales monies and other efforts in anticipation of the new location becoming a reality. The Friends group has, over the years; regardless of the location, strived to make it an inviting place. Forty years later friends' members still volunteer countless hours, hold book sales, yard sales, and work tirelessly to make the Village Branch Library a favorite community gathering place. Friends' members have not only helped in life, but have left bequests which enabled the library to move to its current location. Two of the current members are from the original group of volunteers. That is dedication! One would be hard-pressed to find a library friends group more dedicated over such a long period of time than this group of wonderful and generous people who make up the Friends of Village Library.

George Mason Award

For more than 20 years Philip F. Abraham has led the Virginia Library Association's legislative efforts. Phil works annually with the VLA Legislative Committee to develop the Association's legislative agenda. He assists the committee in designing strategies to get state legislators to support the agenda. He is VLA's eyes and ears for behind-the-scenes developments and regularly alerts and advises the committee when any legislation possibly affecting libraries arises during the General Assembly session. His many years of experience with, and in, Virginia government and his integrity have earned the respect and trust of the legislators. It is through his efforts, advice and suggestions that the library community is able to educate state legislators about the importance of state aid to public libraries and the importance of libraries to their communities. Phil's efforts, during the recent recession, helped public libraries avoid more drastic funding cuts suffered by other groups, and resulted in the first increase in funding in five years during the 2013/2014 fiscal year. His numerous contributions include advocating for major library issues including defense of library collections against censorship, to deeply impactful local issues such as the qualifications of librarians and the organization and definition of public library systems. The community of Virginia librarians is fortunate to have the dedicated and passionate commitment of Mr. Abraham. The George Mason Award is a fitting and richly deserved recognition for all that he has helped us accomplish together.

Trustee Award

Doug Horan was appointed to the Rockbridge Regional Library Board of Trustees in 2011 to serve an unexpired term. He was elected Chairman of the Library Board in 2012. He serves on the Executive, Finance, and Policy committees. Mr. Horan was appointed by the County Board of Supervisors due to his expertise in Human Resources and organizational development. His twenty plus years of experience provided a much needed skill set to the Board of Trustees which was challenged with unique community relations, personnel and organization problems in the library system. During his short-tenure Mr. Horan has been able to re-establish trust with the two city councils and two county boards of supervisors which appropriate funds to Rockbridge Regional Library. He has spent countless hours speaking with members of the library staff, community, city and county officials while working to solve problems. One of his earliest accomplishments was settling long standing issues with neighboring property owners which results in the reopening of the library parking lot. Mr. Horan worked with the Board of Trustees to assess and solve significant personnel problems that caused the library's reputation to suffer in the community. Mr. Horan's role in the hiring of the new library director was integral. Additionally, he continues to work with the new Library Director to repair damaged community and government relations. As he has worked to restore community trust, donations, essential to a nonprofit library, have increased substantially. In July 2013, Mr. Horan was presented with a resolution honoring his service to the Board of Trustees for his outstanding leadership. The Rockbridge Regional Library System is fortunate to have the professional expertise and demeanor of Doug Horan. He has worked tirelessly to ensure the best possible outcome for the library system during some of the worst possible circumstances. Through all the challenges and subsequent changes, he remained professional, open-minded to change and flexible in his approach to working with others. In addition to his volunteer work with the Library, he worked on the Rockbridge County Sign Committee in signage issues and helped the Growth Planning Committee develop recommendations and presentation for the for the community and Board of supervisors with regard to controlling development. He spent five years mentoring and tutoring elementary school children via the library's youth literacy program and spent a year serving as a "Roving Reader" to preschool children at Enderly Heights School.

Honorary Life

Dr. John Moorman served as director of the Williamsburg Regional Library (WRL) for 13 years before retiring in 2013; however, his work with libraries goes back to his childhood when at the age of 11 he volunteered to shelve books in his local library. His professional work began in 1972, but he has served as library director in libraries in North Carolina, Texas, Illinois, and Virginia since 1975. During his tenure at WRL, Dr. Moorman was responsible for the library receiving a five-star rating by Library Journal. For six successive years during Dr. Moorman's tenure, WRL received ratings of four or five stars. He was also responsible for developing new staff programs, enlarging holdings and increasing services to a wide variety of community members. He was also instrumental in mending community relations and fostering new contract relationships with the City of Williamsburg, James City County and York County, which laid the groundwork for the new Stryker Center. This space will add needed administrative and high-tech meeting rooms to existing library space. Dr. Moorman has been active with the Virginia Library Association for many years, and was VLA President in 2010, in addition to serving on the Legislative Committee. In addition, Dr. Moorman was active in the Public Library Association and served in various capacities for the American Library Association including on the Council and the Executive Board. Dr. Moorman has also taught graduate classes, thus helping to educate and lay the ground work for librarians hoping to enter the field. He is also a consultant who has worked with public libraries since 1982. Dr. Moorman's work is not limited to only libraries. He has also volunteered in the Williamsburg community for many years. His accomplishments include serving as the treasurer of the James City County Rotary Club and serving on the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee of the Greater Williamsburg Chamber and Tourism Alliance. He has also served on the Board of Directors of Literacy for Life. The Virginia Library Association is proud to award Dr. John Moorman the Honorary Life Member Award.

2014 Scholarship Award Winners

VLA Paraprofessional Clara Stanley Scholarship: The 2014 recipient of the VLAPF Clara Stanley Scholarship is Tasha Birkhead from Charlottesville, VA. Currently, Tasha works as the Circulation Support Specialist at the Jefferson-Madison Regional Library. Tasha has been active in VLA since 2013. For her future goals, Tasha wishes to create more outreach programming and partner with afterschool programs. She is obtaining her MLIS degree from the Florida State University.

VLA Scholarship: The 2014 recipient of the VLA Scholarship is Tova Johnson from Williamsburg, VA. She has been employed with the Williamsburg Regional Library since 2012 as a Circulation Services Assistant. Tova's goal in obtaining a graduate degree is to become an archivist or academic librarian. Tova is a new member of VLA, since 2014, and active with the New Members Round Table and attended VLA Paraprofessional Forum Conference in 2013. She will attend San Jose State University's online MLIS program this fall. Both Tasha and Tova received $2500.00 towards their educations. Thank you to all who have contributed to the 2014 Scholarship Fund! Please visit the Scholarship Raffle Booth in the Exhibit Hall to show your support.

THURSDAY SESSIONS

Thursday, October 23, 9:00-10:00 am, Presidents Ballroom

Grand Opening of Exhibits and Registration

Registration is located at the rear of the Exhibit Hall in the Presidents Ballroom. Please form two lines, for last names beginning A-L and M-Z. Remember to wear your name badge for all conference activities and sessions. Entertainment provided by the College of William & Mary Cleftomaniacs and complimentary coffee and pastries will be served in the Exhibit Hall.

Thursday, October 23, 10am-11:30am

Welcome and Keynote Address

Please join us for welcoming remarks from The Honorable Mary K. Jones, Chair, James City County Board of Supervisors, and the 2014 VLA Executive Committee. Dr. Michael Stephens of San Jose State University's School of Information will speak about Learning Everywhere: The Transformative Power Of Hyperlinked Libraries. Mobile and Web technologies are changing the way we live and learn. Libraries can play a key role in this future. Imagine the emerging hyperlinked library as a creation space, community space, anything space. Imagine this library available everywhere via mobile devices and tablets. How will services change? What skills will staff require? What does this future look like going forward as we encourage learning everywhere as a means for transformative change for ourselves and our users?

Thursday, October 23, 11:45 am

Box Lunch

Box lunches will be served in the rear of the Presidents Ballroom Exhibit Hall. We offer turkey with bacon, or a vegetarian option. Please choose the appropriate option on your Registration Form. A ticket for your lunch will be included in your registration packet. Lunch tickets will not be available for purchase onsite.

How to Win Supporters and Influence Politicians

Libraries must learn to advocate on their behalf to politicians and government administrators. Oftentimes, a library's funding is controlled by these politicians and without their support the loss of funding is inevitable. So, how do you talk to your politicians, local government officials and administrators? John Chrastka and PC Sweeney will explore some of the best techniques for engaging these individuals and ways to turn them into your best library advocates.

Keynote Address with Gene Ambaum of Unshelved: “A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Library”

If you work in libraries you know that sometimes you have to laugh or else you’ll cry. We deliver the laughs as we take you on a tour of the world’s only library comic strip. The staff and patrons of the Mallville Public Library are instantly recognizable, and give your audience a unique opportunity to gently laugh at themselves and the people they work with on both sides of the desk. We deconstruct some of our greatest hits and tell some of the true-life stories that inspired them, as well as a few we had to leave out.

Extroverts, Introverts, and Everyone In Between: Understanding Different Communication Styles

NMRT

Libraries have the reputation of attracting introverted employees and with a room full of bibliophiles, it’s no surprise that communication can be a challenge. With limited budgets and developing technologies, introverts are increasingly being pushed from their traditional roles in the stacks toward tasks typically only enjoyed by extroverts, such as outreach and networking. Please join us to learn how to communicate with extroverts, introverts, and everyone in between, no matter what your personal communication style may be.

Great Expectations: Combining Services, Improving Experiences

Combining reference and circulation services is a continuing trend in academic libraries. Through a series of conversations and opportunities, George Mason University Libraries are currently implementing this streamlined service approach in a distributed university environment. The George Mason Libraries system consists of two large libraries located on Mason's Fairfax campus and two modest-sized libraries located on Mason's Arlington and Prince William campuses. To achieve the "one-stop" service point goal for each site, the libraries are in the initial stages of redrafting policies, procedures and workflow; revising staff training materials and resources; recasting physical spaces; and refining patron traffic at each combined service desk. Presenters will discuss how they are turning theoretical concepts into front-line customer service realities and will also highlight anticipated outcomes as well as possible assessment measures.

Shaken Not Stirred: Assessing Library Trends and Fads

An interactive session in which attendees will be encouraged to bring their favorite or most woeful library trend or fad. Are you a trend-victim clutching the appletini of library services or a biblio-hipster who would only drink a public-services version of the “Vesper” according to Ian Fleming’s recipe in Casino Royale? As our heads turn from wikis and blogs, to Tweeting to no one, and on to the fairer grounds of Maker Spaces, iPad playgrounds and 3-D Printers, can we evaluate our trend-following as valuable to keeping libraries relevant, or as a distraction from our core mission? Join the discussion, have your say, bring your success stories (and also those trends you wish you’d let others follow). Martinis not provided.

We Enrich Our Community

and...you can enrich your community, too.

Building and maintaining a vibrant Foundation for your library is important. Here, at the Chesapeake Public Library, we achieved this critical objective by seeking community partners interested in securing a bright future for the library system in Chesapeake.

Foundations aren't just for big libraries. Any library can have a foundation and all libraries can benefit from a library foundation because it has the potential to:

- Support the public library with private donations, not subject to governmental control
- Allow donations to be tax-deductible to the giver
- Offer more opportunities for grants due to the non-profit status
- Develop strong advocates for the public library
- Build partnerships in the community

For more detailed information on how to start a library foundation, visit www.CPLFonline.org
